

INDEX.

---

	Page
Preface by W. Trąpczyński, the Speaker of the Diet of the Polish Commonwealth	3
Speech by Deputy A. Wierzbicki	5
The actual problem of Upper Silesia	7
Upper Silesia at the Peace Conference in Paris	8
German Propaganda	9
Mr. Keynes' Book	9
Keynes on the economic problem of Upper Silesia	9
Keynes on the plebiscite in Upper Silesia	10
Keynes' mistakes: How to discover them	11
Coal. Keynes' first mistake, due to the fact that he relied too absolutely on German statistics	12
Which has the greater need of the coal from Upper Silesia: Poland or Germany?	13
How mining in Upper Silesia developed under the Germans	14
How much coal will the Germans have without Upper Silesia? Keynes' second mistake	15
Whence do the foundries of Upper Silesia obtain ore?	16
How will the foundries of Upper Silesia best develop? Under Polish or under German management?	17
Who feeds Upper Silesia?	17
What did the Upper Silesian Germans demand in their secret memorials?	18
For what purpose does Germany need Upper Silesia?	19
Why is Upper Silesia necessary to Poland and Poland to Upper Silesia?	19
The interests of peace and the economic equilibrium of Europe demand that Upper Silesia be given to Poland	20
When Keynes learns the truth he will support the Polish Cause	21
Poland will defend Upper Silesia by the truth	22

SOURCES AND DOCUMENTS.

Addenda.

	Page
1. Reply of the Allied and Associated Powers to the observations of the German delegation on the Conditions of Peace, May 29th, 1919. Chapter concerning Upper Silesia	25
2. Observations of the German Delegation on the Conditions of Peace, May 29th, 1919	27
3. Selections from J. M. Keynes' work "The Economic consequences of the Peace", p. 78	28
Keynes on Upper Silesian coal	28
Keynes on iron ore	29
Keynes on the plebiscite in Upper Silesia	30
4. Coal Commission for Central Europe. 25th meeting held at Morawska Ostrawa Polish remarks to the German Statements of March 26th, 1920 with regard to the consumption of Upper Silesian Coal in Poland in 1913	31
5. Execution of the Treaty of Versailles by the Germans as concerning the supplying of coal for the Allied Powers	32
6. Production and consumption of coal in Germany, Poland and Upper Silesia (A quotation from the work of the Polish Government delegate, J. Kramsztyk)	33
7. Facsimile of the title-page of the German monograph on Upper Silesia "Handbuch des Oberschlesischen Industriebezirks"	43

SELECTIONS FROM THIS WORK.

The Political importance of Upper Silesia for Germany	44
General Conditions of production in the mines and foundries of Upper Silesia	44
Conditions of outlet for the coal industry	47
Consumption of Upper Silesian coal, coke and briquettes	47
The market for Upper Silesian Coal in Congress-Poland	48
Consumption of Pit coal and briquettes in Berlin	49
The importance of the Polish market for Upper Silesian coke	50
Conditions of iron industry in Upper Silesia	50
The Upper Silesian production of pig-iron	52
Conditions of the Upper Silesian iron industry	52
Conditions for the supply of Upper Silesia with pork	53
Conditions for the supply of Upper Silesia with timber	54
8. Facsimile of photograph and of the title-page of secret German memorials presented to the Chancellor of the German Federation, Bethman-Hollweg	55

SECRET MEMORIALS.

A memorial presented by the Upper Silesian Mining and Foundry Association concerning the purchasing of iron ore, of old iron and of wood for mining, in Poland, for Upper Silesia. Journal No. A. 1378. Katowice, September 3rd, 1916 . . . . .	57

A memorial presented by the Chamber of Commerce of the Opole district (Journal No. 11563, Opole (Oppeln) September 24th, 1916), concerning the same question and the question of provisioning Upper Silesia . . . . .	63
A memorial presented by the Chamber of Commerce of the Opole (Oppeln) district, dated Katowice, July 1917) concerning the Upper Silesian ques- tion and the future of Poland . . . . .	68
9. The exchange of the most important food-stuffs between Upper Silesia and Poland and between Upper Silesia and Germany . . . . .	73