

Contents

Preface ix

1 The economy in outline 1

Resources; land; labour; capital; production; the pattern of production; foreign trade; commodity composition; geographical distribution; invisible trade; economic growth; unemployment; the monetary system; inflation; government; the nationalised industries.

Appendix: tables showing geographical distribution of population related to land area in Census years; working population of Great Britain, age and sex distribution, 1981; employees by industry 1984; gross capital stock 1980.

2 The organisation of business activity 25

Forms of business organisation; the single proprietorship; partnerships; cooperatives; joint stock companies; business accounts; the financing of the modern firm; share issues; bond issues; borrowing from banks; gearing; reinvested profits; take-overs of other firms; the Stock Exchange; the control of joint stock companies; the power of personal and institutional investors; company management; share ownership and control; public sector business organisation; the public corporation; the control of nationalised industries; financial obligations of nationalised industries; nationalisation and denationalisation; privatisation; market structures; non-price competition.

3 The structure of British industry 47

National output; industrial development; industrial productivity; the location of industry; changes in location; industrial concentration; the size of manufacturing establishments; the size of business enterprises; diversification; changes in concentration; mergers; cooperation among firms.

Appendix: tables showing industrial output (£) 1973 and 1983; relative industrial output 1974-83; labour productivity 1974-83; size of establishments and enterprises in manufacturing 1981.

4 Distribution 73

Distribution of income; size distribution; factor distribution; trends in the shares of factor incomes; the supply of labour; population size; working population; men and women in the labour force; unemployment; wages; occupational differences; industry wage differences; age and sex wage differences; regional wage differences; non-pecuniary advantages and disadvantages; trade unions; historical development; trade union strength; trade union structure; collective bargaining; disputes; other factors of production; rent; risk.

Appendix: tables showing regional unemployment 1985; average weekly earnings of manual workers 1983; trade unions—numbers and membership 1975–83; industrial stoppages 1982, 1983.

5 International trade and development 99

The basis of trade; the major nations in international trade; the trade of the UK; commodity trade; import penetration and export sales ratios; geographical distribution of UK trade; the terms of trade; export competitiveness; trade restrictions; UK tariff policy; GATT; the EEC; economic development.

Appendix: tables showing world exports of manufactures 1974–83; geographical distribution of UK visible trade 1973 and 1983; commodity composition of UK visible trade 1973 and 1983; income per capita (selected countries) 1980.

6 Government and resource allocation 121

The goals and tools of economic policy; government revenue and expenditure; taxes on income and expenditure; capital taxes; local authority rates; national insurance contributions; other income; the national debt; international comparisons of tax burdens; expenditure; economic policies in the UK; income redistribution and the government's budget; non-budgetary redistributory tools; trends in the size distribution of income; income distribution and price changes; the distribution of wealth; government and economic efficiency; competition policy; monopolies; restrictive practices; mergers; competition and efficiency; distribution of industry policy; government and agriculture; agriculture and the Common Market; housing, education and health; nationalised industries; coal; electricity; gas; oil; nuclear power; civil airlines; steel; postal and telephone services; profitability of the nationalised industries; privatisation.

Appendix: tables showing government income and expenditure on current account 1973, 1978, 1983; public expenditure by the UK Government 1978-9, 1982-3, 1986-7; distribution of personal income 1975-6, 1981-2; Retail Price Index 1974-84.

7 National income and the balance of payments 163

National income; expenditure-based measure of national income; consumption; investment; government and exports; income-based measure of national income; output-based measure of national income; the national accounts; foreign trade; taxes and subsidies on expenditure; property income from abroad; capital consumption; the reliability of national income statistics; living standards; poverty; real and money national income; the balance of payments; current and capital transactions; the current account; the capital account.

Appendix: tables showing Gross National Product 1973, 1978 and 1983; real Gross Domestic and National Product 1973-83; UK balance of payments on current account 1946-83; UK balance of payments on capital account 1973 and 1981-3.

8 Money and banking 187

Money; forms of money; coins; notes; bank deposits; sight and time deposits; non-sterling deposits; deposits of non-banking financial institutions; alternative definitions of the money supply; the banking system; the clearing banks; bank clearing; assets and liabilities of the clearing banks; the UK banking sector; retail banks; overseas banks; accepting houses; non-banking financial institutions; discount houses; building societies; insurance companies; pension funds; the monetary sector as a whole; the Bank of England; the Issue Department; the Banking Department; liabilities; assets.

Appendix: tables showing money stock 1973, 1980-4; banks' liabilities and assets of reporting institutions 1983; Bank of England Balance Sheet 1973, 1983.

9 Growth and stabilisation policy 209

Fluctuations in output and employment; the goals of macroeconomic policy; economic growth; price stability; the effects of inflation; full employment; the distribution of unemployment; job vacancies (U-V ratio); the Phillips curve; the tools of macroeconomic policy; fiscal policy; fine tuning; cyclical indicators; monetary policy; bank liquidity; interest rate policy; other techniques of monetary policy; fiscal versus monetary policy; other stabilisation policies; prices/incomes policies; intervention in the labour market; indicative planning; international economic policy; balance of payments problems; instruments of balance of payments policy; commercial policy; changing the exchange rate; exchange control; monetary policy; reserves; international cooperation; Bretton Woods; special drawing rights; other international cooperative arrangements; the World Debt Problem; concluding remarks: macroeconomic policy—a perspective.

Appendix: tables showing growth rates of selected industrial countries 1964–83; index numbers of consumer prices for selected countries 1974–84; unemployment in selected countries as a percentage of the labour force; growth rates, unemployment, inflation, money stock and interest rates 1975–84.

Index 247