

Contents

Introduction	12
Section one
The fundamentals of grammar
General review of tenses and verb forms	15
Modal auxiliary verbs	17
Introduction	17
Ability or potential: can, could, be able to	21
4 Ability or potential in past time: could, could have	22
5 be able to	22
Conditional could, would be able to	23
6 could, could have	24
7 would be able, would have been able	24
8 General characteristics: can, could	24
Possibility: can, could, may, might	25
9 Present or future possibility: may, might, could	26
10 Past possibility: may have, might have, could have (Situations)	27
Permission: can, could, may, might	28
11 can, could, may, might in reported speech	28
Other uses of may and might	29
12 Concessive may	29
13 might in requests and suggestions	29
14 Expectation or probability: should, ought to	30
15 Inference and logical conclusion: must, can't (Situations)	31
16 Belief and conjecture: will, would	32
17 Characteristic behaviour: will, would	32
18 Inherent capacity: will, would (Situations)	34

	Prediction: shall, will	34
19	shall after I, we (reported > direct speech)	37
20	Review: various uses of will	38
	Advice and recommendation: shall, should, ought to, had better	38
21	should, ought to, had better (Situations)	39
	Other uses of should	40
22	should in noun clauses after suggest, recommend , etc.	40
23	should in adverbial clauses of purpose	41
24	should in noun clauses after subject + to be + adjective	42
	Obligation and necessity: must, mustn't, have (got) to	42
25	must, mustn't, have (got) to	45
26	must, mustn't, have (got) to in reported speech	46
	Absence of obligation or necessity: needn't, not need to, not have to	46
27	needn't, not need to, not have to	48
28	needn't, not need to, not have to in reported speech	49
	Introduction to the verb forms of English	50
	The 'simple' verb forms	51
	Present simple	51
29	Present simple: states	52
30	Present simple in explanations	52
31	Present simple for daily habits	53
32	Present simple with 'frequency' adverbs (Situations)	53
33–34	Composition topics	54
35–36	Present simple in demonstrations	55
37	Present simple in headlines	56
	Past simple	56
38	Stative verbs: present simple and past simple	57
39	Past simple ('narrative') for past events	57
40	Past events (Situations)	58
41–42	Composition topics	58
	Future actions or events	59
43	Present simple with adverbs having future time reference	59
44	Present simple in adverbial clauses of time referring to future	60
	A note on the 'future'	61

The 'progressive' verb forms	62
Present progressive	62
45-46 Present progressive	63
Past progressive	64
47 Past simple and past progressive	65
48 Present and past, simple and progressive	65
49 Present simple and progressive, simple and progressive infinitive, present participle	66
Future actions or events	67
50 Progressive forms with adverbs referring to future time (plans and arrangements)	67
Future progressive	68
51 Simple and progressive infinitive after shall, will, may , etc.	69
Perfect progressive	69
52 Present and past perfect progressive	70
Verbs not normally used in progressive forms	71
53 Present simple (Situations)	72
54 States and events: present simple or progressive	72
The 'perfect' verb forms	73
55-56 Perfect forms in past, present and future time	75
57 Present perfect and past perfect, simple or progressive (Situations)	76
58 Present progressive and present perfect	77
59 Present perfect (Situations)	78
for and since	78
60 Present perfect with since	79
61-62 for and since	80
Simple and progressive perfect forms	80
63 Present perfect simple or progressive	81
Present perfect in adverbial clauses of time referring to future	82
64 Present perfect in future time clauses	83
65 Reported speech	83
Past simple and past perfect: time distinctions	84
66-67 Past simple and past perfect	85
68 Past perfect: substituting finite for non-finite clauses	86
69 Past perfect in reported speech	87

Conditional sentences	88
Introduction	88
Type 0: cause and effect	89
70 Cause and effect (Situations)	89
Type 1: open conditions	90
71 Basic forms (Situations)	90
Type 1: variations	90
72 should and will in conditional clauses	91
73 Type 1: alternative forms	92
74 Review of Type 1 conditions	92
Type 2: tentative, hypothetical, and unreal conditions (present or future time reference)	93
75 Tentative suggestions and hypothetical conditions	94
76 Hypothetical conditions (Situations)	94
77 Unreal conditions (present time)	94
wish, 'd rather, It's time + noun clause with past tense	95
78 Past tense after wish	95
79 Past tense after wish, 'd rather, It's time	96
Type 2: variations	96
80 Review of Type 2 conditions	97
Type 3: unreal conditions (past time reference)	97
81-83 Unreal conditions (past time)	98
84 Unreal conditions (past and present time)	98
85 Review of Type 3 conditions	99
86 Inversion in place of If	99
Conjunctions introducing conditional clauses	100
87-88 Conditionals: general review	101
89 Composition topic	102
Conditionals in reported speech	103
90 Reporting Type 1 conditions	104
91 Reporting Type 2 conditions	104
The passive voice	105
Introduction	105
92 Passive sentences without 'agents'	106
93 Passive sentences with and without 'agents'	107
94 Prepositions in passive sentences	108

	Phrasal and prepositional verbs in the passive	109
95	Phrasal and prepositional verbs (Situations)	109
96	Active > Passive transforms	110
97	Passive forms of phrasal and prepositional verbs	110
	Passive transforms of subject + verb + indirect object + direct object	111
98	Active > Passive transforms	111
99	Situations	111
	Passive transforms of subject + verb + 'that' clause	112
100	Passive transforms using the infinitive	113
101	have or get + noun + past participle	114
	Advanced exercises in conversion	115
102	Active > Passive transforms	115
103	Passive > Active transforms	115
	Relative clauses	116
	Defining relative clauses	116
104-105	Definitions	117
	that, who, which in defining clauses	117
	Omitting the relative pronoun in defining clauses	118
106-110	Defining clauses	119
	Non-defining relative clauses	122
111-114	Non-defining clauses	123
115	whose in defining and non-defining clauses	125
	Prepositional relative clauses	126
116	Defining clauses with prepositions	128
117	Defining clauses with end-preposition	128
118	Non-defining clauses with prepositions	129
119	Co-ordinate relative clauses	130
120	Cleft sentences	131
121	where, when, why, as in relative clauses	132
122-123	what in noun clauses	134
	Collective nouns as antecedents	135

Verb patterns with -ing forms, infinitives and 'that' clauses	135
Introduction	135
Classification	137
124-126 Gerunds after prepositions, prepositional verbs, and phrasal verbs	139
to + gerund or infinitive	140
127 to + gerund	141
128 to + gerund or infinitive	141
Group 1: verbs followed by the gerund	142
129 Verb + gerund	143
Nouns and pronouns before gerunds	144
130-131 Verb + (noun or pronoun) + gerund	145
Verbs followed by the infinitive	146
Group 2a: verbs followed by the infinitive without preceding noun	146
132-133 Subject + verb + infinitive	147
134 Composition exercise	147
Group 2b: verbs followed by a noun + infinitive	148
135-137 Subject + verb + noun + infinitive	149
Group 2c: verbs followed by the infinitive, with or without preceding noun	150
138 Subject + verb + (noun) + infinitive	151
Group 3: verbs followed by the gerund or the infinitive	152
139-142 Gerund or infinitive	154
Group 4: verbs followed by a noun + present participle or infinitive without to	156
143 Subject + verb + noun + participle or infinitive	158
144 make and let	158
145 make in the passive (Situations)	159
Group 5: verbs followed by a 'that' clause	159
146 Subject + verb + 'that' clause	160
147 Subject + verb + noun + to be	160

Participles and gerunds	161
Introduction	161
148–151 Non-finite clauses using participles	163
152 Participles and gerunds in non-finite clauses	167
153–154 General review: gerunds, infinitives, and participles	167
The position of adverbs	169
155–158 Inversion of subject and verb after initial negative adverbs	169
159–160 Adverb position and meaning	172
Reported speech	173
Introduction	173
161 Tense changes in reported speech	175
162 Questions in reported speech	175
163 Composition	175
164 Consumer report	176
165–171 Various reporting verbs other than say and tell	176
172 Dialogue: reported > direct speech	178
173–174 Reporting conversations from a particular point of view	179
175–176 Converting reports into direct speech	180
Section two
Sentence structure and synthesis	183
Adjectival clauses	183
177–178 Participles in non-finite adjectival clauses	183
179 Infinitives in non-finite adjectival clauses	185
180 Finite and non-finite adjectival clauses	185
181 Co-ordinate relative clauses	186
Adverbial clauses	187
Conjunctions used to introduce adverbial clauses	187
182–185 Adverbial clauses (finite and non-finite)	188
therefore, nevertheless, however	190
186–187 Adverbial clauses of reason or concession	191
188–193 Adverbial clauses (finite or non-finite)	192

	Noun clauses	193
194–195	Finite noun clauses	193
196	Infinitives in non-finite noun clauses	194
197	Noun clauses as subject	195
	Appositional noun clauses	195
198–200	Noun clauses (finite and non-finite)	196
201	Non-finite clauses (adjectival, adverbial and noun)	197
202–206	Synthesis	198
207–213	Distinguishing between similar sentences	200
214–215	Ambiguous sentences	204
216	Punctuation and meaning	205

Section three

Vocabulary work

		207
217–219	The use of words	207
220–229	Words confused or misused	209
230–233	Comparisons and contrasts	212
234–238	Words and their associations	213
239–243	Substituting adverbs for adverbial phrases	215
244–248	Adjectives ending in -ible , -able , and -uble	218
249–250	Adjectives ending in -ive	220
251–254	Adjectives ending in -ous	222
255–258	Adjectives and verbs ending in -ate	225
259–260	Verbs ending in -fy	226
261–262	Verbs ending in -ize or -ise	227
263–271	Words with variable stress and pronunciation	228
272–280	Prefixes and suffixes	230
281–285	Compound words	231
286–294	Word formation	234
295–304	Homonyms	235
305–310	Homophones	236
311–316	Related word groups	237
	Phrasal and prepositional verbs	238
317–318	Word order after phrasal and prepositional verbs	240
319–325	Replacing words with phrasal or prepositional verbs	241
326–327	Replacing phrasal or prepositional verbs with synonymous verbs	244
328–329	Opposites	245
330–332	Phrasal and prepositional verbs (Situations)	246

	Compound words derived from phrasal verbs	248
333-335	Compound nouns related to phrasal verbs	249
336	Irregular plurals	251
337-340	Idioms and proverbs	251
341-342	Colloquial phrases and responses (Situations)	254
343-344	Newspaper headlines	255
345-353	General knowledge	255
354-356	Abbreviations	258

Section four

Composition work 259

357-359	Preliminary composition work	259
360	Arguments 'for' and 'against'	260
361	Composition subjects (250-300 words)	261
362	Composition subjects (350-500 words)	262
363	Subjects for letters (90-120 words)	263

Appendix: Notes on clauses 264

Key to exercises 275

Inside back cover:

Construction of verb forms in English