

CONTENTS

Foreword	7
From the editor	7
From the coordinator	9
PART I. INTRODUCTORY	11
Chapter 1. European Union as the Environment of Entrepreneurship	12
Chapter 2. Public-Private Partnership and Entrepreneurship	19
Chapter 3. Polish and Lithuanian enterprise in the conditions of the European Union	25
PART II. REPORTING	37
Chapter 1. The Subject Aspect of the Project Europe without Borders – Partnership in Support of SME	38
1.1. Project Partners:	38
1.2. Project Beneficiaries	39
Chapter II. Project Aims and Assumptions	40
Chapter III. Project Activities	42
THE PART III. EVALUATORY	49
Chapter 1 Final Conclusions	50
General conclusions:	50
Detailed conclusions:	51
Chapter 2. How to Efficiently Build the Public-Private Partnership for the Benefit Of the Polish and Lithuanian Businessmen? The Idea and the Realization of a Network of Cooperation	53
Chapter 3. Selected materials of the project	55
3.1. Didactic materials of the project	55
Acquisition of funds from the structural funds conducted by Michał Olszewski m.a., Committee of European Integration, Department of Social Communication and European Information	55
Structural funds	56
Methodology of project development	58
Acquisition of resources from structural funds – increasing company competitiveness programme conducted by Bartosz Wasilewski m.a., Committee of European Integration, Department of Social Communication and European Information	64
Company support within the framework of European Union funds	67
Small and medium-sized enterprises in the European Union conducted by Krzysztof Jakoby – expert from Stockholm, Sweden	84

Polish businessmen and eu law, conducted by Maciej Perkowski, PhD – the director of the Centre of European Studies of the Higher School of Public Administration in Białystok. 87

Useful contacts and addresses Europe without Borders

– Partnership in Support of SME 91

 Poland 91

Lithuania 95

Sweden 97

Bibliography 99

Project partners 100

 Enterprise Development Foundation 100

 Poviat (County) of Elk 102

 Vilnius Region 104