

Contents

Preface to the 2nd edition.....	5
Introduction.....	6
Executive summary.....	8
I. "Outskirts", "Russia's shadow", "fascists":
Russian historical propaganda about Ukraine	11
Narrative I. "Ukraine is Russia's failed shadow"	12
Narrative II. "Ukraine is an artificial project of the West"	15
Narrative III. "Crimea, Donbas, and South-East of Ukraine should belong to Russia"	18
Narrative IV. "USSR was a powerful empire, and Stalin was a hero"	23
Narrative V. "All Ukrainian nationalists were fascists"	26
Narrative VI. "Ukraine forgot about the victory over Nazism"	30
II. Response from Ukrainian Historians: Project "LikBez. A Historical Front"	33
Narrative I. "Ukraine is Russia's failed shadow"	34
Narrative II. "Ukraine is an artificial project of the West"	40
Narrative III. "Crimea, Donbas, and South-East of Ukraine should belong to Russia"	45
Narrative IV. "USSR was a powerful empire, and Stalin was a hero"	52
Narrative V. "All Ukrainian nationalists were fascists"	54
Narrative VI. "Ukraine forgot about the victory over Nazism"	62
III. Response from Ukrainian Historians: Yaroslav Hrytsak	67
Narrative I. "Ukraine is Russia's failed shadow"	68
Narrative II. "Ukraine is an artificial project of the West"	72
Narrative III. "Crimea, Donbas and South-East of Ukraine Should Belong to Russia"	78
Narrative IV. "The USSR was a powerful empire, and Stalin was a hero"	81
Narrative V. "All Ukrainian nationalists were fascists"	84
Narrative VI. "Ukraine forgot about the victory over Nazism"	87
Authors and project team	90