

INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1

Business ethics and CSR – historical and theoretical aspects 7

1.1. Business ethics in economic activity 7

1.1.1. Growing interest in business ethics 7

1.1.2. The way ethics are formed 10

1.1.3. Definitions of ethics and business ethics 12

1.1.4. Aim of business ethics 14

1.1.5. Social demand for ethical and responsible business 14

1.2. History and evolution of Corporate Social Responsibility 15

1.2.1. Introduction – Milton Friedman’s Argument 15

1.2.2. The definitions of CSR 16

1.2.3. Areas of social responsibility 21

1.2.4. Stages of CSR development 23

1.3. Approaches to social responsibility 26

1.4. Critics of CSR 28

1.5. Corporate social responsiveness 30

1.5.1. Ackerman’s Model 31

1.5.2. Preston and Post’s model 32

1.5.3. Carroll’s Theory 33

1.6. Ethical role of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) 38

Chapter 2

How to improve ethical consciousness in a company 42

2.1. Ethical tools 42

2.2. Arguments for the application and implementation of CSR 50

2.3. Arguments against CSR 53

2.4. The Government and Social responsibility 54

2.4.1. Government Regulation of Business 55

2.4.2. Business Influence on Government 56

Chapter 3

The impact of the ethical instruments on the company's social image, on the example of British American Tobacco Polska	58
3.1. The strategy of British American Tobacco	58
3.1.1. The beginnings of British American Tobacco	59
3.2 The Approach of British American Tobacco Polskatowards the fulfillment of CSR programs	60
3.2.1. Programs for the society benefit	60
3.2.2. Programs for the natural environment benefit	61
3.2.3. Health protection at work place	64
3.2.4. Globalization and honest economic activity	65
3.2.5. BAT's Statement of Business Principles	66
3.3. Can a cigarette manufacturer be socially responsible - BAT perspective?	77
3.4. How to build a strategy based on social dialogue- case study	80
3.5. Conclusion of BAT ethical strategy	82
3.6. What was it like for the responsible business in years 2007-2008	84
CONCLUSION	92
BIBLIOGRAPHY	93