

Contents

TOPIC	LEVEL AND LESSON	LANGUAGE	PAGE
The United Kingdom	★ Wales against the world	past simple (regular and irregular), sequencing words: first, then, next, after that, in the end	6–7
	★★ Scotland for ever!	past simple (regular and irregular), compass points, negative prefixes: dis-, im-, in-, un-	8–9
	★★★ The Irish question	past simple (regular and irregular), past participles	10–11
Kings and queens	★ Crazy kings	past simple (regular and irregular), comparative adjectives	12–13
	★★ Cool queens	past simple (regular and irregular), superlative adjectives	14–15
	★★★ Romantic royals	past simple (regular and irregular), relative clauses	16–17
Historic buildings	★ The Queen's homes	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular)	18–19
	★★ A prison and a palace	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular)	20–21
	★★★ Top universities: Oxford and Cambridge	past simple (regular and irregular), must/mustn't, are/aren't allowed	22–23
Famous explorers	★ Sea explorers	past simple (regular and irregular), conjunctions: and, because, but, or, so, then	24–25
	★★ Extreme explorers	past simple (regular and irregular), comparative and superlative adjectives, as ... as	26–27
	★★★ Explorers in Africa	past simple (regular and irregular)	28–29
Famous women	★ Florence Nightingale: the lady with the lamp	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular), must/mustn't	30–31
	★★ Elizabeth Fry: a life of good work	past simple (regular and irregular), -ed and -ing adjectives	32–33
	★★★ Votes for women	past simple (regular and irregular), first conditional	34–35
Famous men	★ They cared for poor workers	past simple (regular and irregular), conjunctions: so and because	36–37
	★★ They helped young people	past simple (regular and irregular), past simple questions with did	38–39
	★★★ Famous fighters	past simple (regular and irregular), present and past passive	40–41
Dreadful disasters	★ The great fire of London	past simple (regular and irregular),	42–43
	★★ The Black Death	past simple (regular and irregular), gerunds	44–45
	★★★ The Titanic	past simple (regular and irregular), past perfect	46–47

TOPIC	LEVEL AND LESSON	LANGUAGE	PAGE
The worst wars	★ The wars of the roses	past simple (regular and irregular) ordinal numbers, articles: a/an, the and zero article	48–49
	★★ The English civil war	past simple (regular and irregular), opposites	50–51
	★★★ Two world wars	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular)	52–53
Wonderful writers	★ Three great writers	past simple (regular and irregular), enjoy, hate, like, love , etc. + -ing verb	54–55
	★★ Women writers	past simple (regular and irregular)	56–57
	★★★ Romantic poets	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular), rhyming words	58–59
Inventions, discoveries and science	★ They changed their world	past simple (regular and irregular)	60–61
	★★ They discovered it	past simple (regular and irregular), present perfect	62–63
	★★★ Great thinkers	past simple (regular and irregular), past perfect	64–65
Transport	★ Cars	past simple (regular and irregular), opposites of adjectives, verbs and adverbs	66–67
	★★ Trains	past simple (regular and irregular)	68–69
	★★★ Boats	past simple (regular and irregular), can, used to	70–71
Music, art, crafts and leisure	★ Marvellous musicians	past simple (regular and irregular)	72–73
	★★ Clever craftsmen	present simple questions and short answers, past simple (regular and irregular), job words	74–75
	★★★ Joseph Paxton and the Crystal Palace	past simple (regular and irregular)	76–77
Britain and the world	★ North America	past simple (regular and irregular), anyone, everyone, no one, someone	78–79
	★★ Australia and New Zealand	past simple (regular and irregular), negative prefixes: dis-, in-, un-	80–81
	★★★ India	present simple, past simple (regular and irregular)	82–83
Quizzes	★ Quiz 1		84–85
	★★ Quiz 2		86–87
	★★★ Quiz 3		88–89
Answers			90–95