

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                 |       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| PREFACE . . . . .                                                                                               | VII   |
| INTRODUCTION . . . . .                                                                                          | IX    |
| USING THE DICTIONARY . . . . .                                                                                  | X     |
| GRAMMATICAL INFORMATION IN THE POLISH-ENGLISH DICTIONARY . . . . .                                              | X     |
| ABBREVIATIONS . . . . .                                                                                         | XI    |
| POLISH PRONUNCIATION . . . . .                                                                                  | XV    |
| NUMBERS . . . . .                                                                                               | XVI   |
| GUIDE TO POLISH GRAMMAR WITH TABLES OF POLISH IRREGULAR FORMS(M. IDZIKOWSKI, rev. P. GĄSIOROWSKI) . . . . . | XVIII |
| THE POLISH-ENGLISH DICTIONARY . . . . .                                                                         | 1     |

All of the lexicographic work was done in Poznań under the direction of Professor Jacek Fisiak, Head of the School of English of the Adam Mickiewicz University, who served as the project's Editor-in-Chief supervising the team of experienced, professional lexicographers and consultants. Mr Michał Jankowski, Head of Computer Center, School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University, served as Deputy Editor-in-Chief. Editor of the Polish-English volume was Professor Arleta Adamska-Salaciak, Head of Department of Lexicography and Lexicology, School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University. Mr Mariusz Idzikowski was Editor of the Polish-English volume until his resignation in May, 2000 being replaced by Professor Piotr Gąsiorowski, Professor at the School of English of the Adam Mickiewicz University, who was assisted by Dr. Marcin Feder and Mr. Maciej Machrowski since June 2002. Assisting the Polish team of lexicographers for current American usage was a U.S. Advisory Committee consisting of Professor Michael J. Mihal, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee; Professor Robert A. Rothstein, University of Massachusetts at Amherst; Professor Oscar E. Swan, University of Pittsburgh and Professor Charles E. Townsend, Princeton University.

While the five year project was financed principally from the "Stanisław Chyliński Endowment Fund" established at the Kościusko Foundation in 1974, the project's financing was assisted by a number of institutions and individuals whom we gratefully acknowledge.

A major grant provided by the "Fundacja na Rzecz Nauki Polskiej" ("Foundation for Polish Science") (FNP) of Warsaw, Poland was of great importance to the initiation of this project. We extend our gratitude to FNP's Board of Directors and its Officers for their support. In addition, we are most grateful to FNP's President, Professor Maciej W. Gabański, for his encouragement and belief in the project from the outset.

Significant corporate support in the United States was provided by the Polish National Alliance of Brooklyn, USA, the Polish-Slavic Federal Credit Union, Brooklyn, New York and the Rockefeller Foundation.