

Contents

To the student	3
----------------------	---

Part A: Presentation

Chapter I: Growing Up

1. Liz Lochhead, The Choosing	6
2. Alan Sillitoe, My Pleasurable Education of Reading	8
3. Shirley Jackson, After You, My Dear Alphonse	11
4. Joseph Heller, You Never Want to Talk to Me	15
5. Bill Davidson, Teen Shoplifters: What Makes Them Do It?	19
6. Phil Cushman, Warning on Cults	22
7. Subway Saints	24
8. Robert Frost, The Road Not Taken	27

Chapter II: Facing the World of Work

1. Peter Terson, Every Man to His Job	29
2. Sarah Morgan, Careers Officer – A Kind of Miracle Worker?	34
3. Stuart MacLure, Growing Up in the Eighties	37
4. Bryn Griffiths, On the Dole	40
5. Carolyn Lewis, A Different Sort of Liberation	42
6. What's My Line?	45
7. Jane Prior, Jobs for All Will Never Return	47
8. William D. Marbach, Hope Lampert, William J. Cook, The Factory of the Future	49

Chapter III: Living Together in Society

1. John Rae, Parable of the Good Lunatic	51
2. Joyce Cary, Red Letter Day	54
3. Shirley Williams, How Good Are the Comprehensives?	58
4. Susan Bower, Elite is Excellent	60
5. Oscar Wilde, Bred in a Hand-bag	63
6. We Will Change the Political Face of the U.S. – An Interview with Mario Obledo	67
Info-Box: Development of Civil Rights in the U.S.A. – A Survey	70
7. If Black English, Then	71
8. James Thurber, The Birds and the Foxes	73

Part B: Practice

Chapter IV: Shaping a Nation

1. Emma Lazarus, The New Colossus	75
2. Richard D. Lamm, We Must Come to Grips with Immigration	77
3. Alexander B. Adams, Making a Home on the Frontier	79
4. Theodore Upson, Brother Rises against Brother	82
5. Abraham Lincoln, On Saving the Nation	84
Diagram: The American System of Government	85
6. Dangers—and Rights— of a Politically Active Clergy—An Interview with Winthrop Hudson	86
7. Felix G. Rohatyn, The Fragile System	89

Chapter V: Running a Country

1. Audrey Whiting, Just Charlie and Me ... and Wills Makes Three	92
2. Vernon Bogdanor, What is Proportional Representation?	95
Info-Box: Development of the British Parliamentary System – A Survey	98
3. Elizabeth Stones, The Whips	99
Diagram: The British System of Government	102
4. Roger McGough, Just Another Autumn Day	103
5. The Trade Unions' Organisation	105
 6. Anthony Burgess, The Unions in Power	107
 7. Jonathan Lynn, Antony Jay, The Hospital	110

Chapter VI: Talking to Each Other

1. Joseph Treen et al., English, English Everywhere	113
2. S. J. Goldsmith, When One Language May Not Be Enough	116
3. George Bernard Shaw, Have I Said Anything I Oughtnt?	118
 4. Anglophones of the Future	121
5. T.S.W., Hints on Pronunciation for Foreigners	124
Info-Box: Development of the English Language – A Survey	125
6. William and Mary Morris, Euphemism	126
 7. Joseph Heller, T.S. Eliot	128

Chapter VII: Looking across Borders

1. Lynn Procter, Talking to Teenagers	131
2. A Newsweek Poll: America's Place in the World	134
3. Anthony Sampson, Let's Not Be Beastly to the Yanks	136
 4. Christopher Isherwood, Returning to England	138
5. Dennis J. Enright, No Offence	140
 6. Paul Stewart, "Tea-Break" vs. "Kreislauftörung"	142
7. Edward M. Forster, On Tolerance	144

Some Useful Phrases for Discussion	146
Notes on the Authors	148
Glossary	151
Abbreviations and symbols	159
Acknowledgements	159

-  A recording of the text is contained on "Selected Texts on Cassette".