

Contents

|                                     |    |
|-------------------------------------|----|
| The author and series editor | 1  |
| Foreword                     | 3  |
| Introduction                 | 5  |
| How to use this book         | 13 |

1 Working creatively with newspapers

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Newspapers in coursebooks                              | 19 |
| Newspapers and English for Specific Purposes           | 19 |
| Newspaper materials resource books                     | 20 |
| Working with newspapers                                | 23 |
| Imaginative newspaper work                             | 24 |
| Material requirements and conditions for creative work | 26 |

2 Building confidence and familiarity

| Activity                            | Level                      | Topic                                   |    |
|--|-----------------------------------|--|----|
| 2.1 When I hit the headlines               | Lower-intermediate and above      | Relating newspapers to personal experience     | 30 |
| 2.2 The letter I never wrote (until now)   | Upper-intermediate and above      | How a reader can contribute to a newspaper     | 30 |
| 2.3 What's in a newspaper                  | Intermediate and above            | Identifying newspaper text types               | 31 |
| 2.4 New names                              | Upper-elementary and above        | People in the news                             | 32 |
| 2.5 Names in the news                      | Intermediate and above            | People in the news                             | 32 |
| 2.6 Understanding what we don't understand | Intermediate and above            | The challenge of difficult newspaper materials | 33 |
| 2.7 Hide and seek                          | Intermediate and above            | Finding one's way around a newspaper           | 34 |
| 2.8 Where to find it                       | Intermediate and above            | Page and whole newspaper layout                | 35 |
| 2.9 Where to put it                        | Upper-intermediate and above      | Locating different article types               | 36 |
| 2.10 Front pages                           | Intermediate and above (business) | Personal implications of the news              | 37 |

|      |   |                                      |   |    |
|------|---|--------------------------------------|---|----|
| 2.11 | Reading for leisure/reading for work      | Intermediate andabove (business) | Reading for real-life relevantinformation             | 37 |
| 2.12 | Questions andadvice                       | Intermediate andabove            | Relating to people innewspaper stories                | 38 |
| 2.13 | Things I want toknow                      | Intermediate andabove            | What is included in andomitted from stories           | 39 |
| 2.14 | Probing humaninterest stories             | Upper-intermediateand above      | Why people find themselvesin the newspapers           | 40 |
| 2.15 | Which story next?                             | Intermediate andabove            | Connecting newspaperstories                           | 41 |
| 2.16 | Categorizing stories                          | Intermediate andabove            | Responding to newspaperstories on an emotional level  | 42 |
| 2.17 | Picture into story                            | Elementary andabove              | Matching picture and story                                | 42 |
| 2.18 | Culture andnewspapers                     | Intermediate andabove            | Culture and language innewspapers                     | 43 |
| 2.19 | News stories in twocultures               | Intermediate andabove            | English and mother-tonguetreatments of the same topic | 44 |
| 2.20 | I expected to find ...and I was surprised | Intermediate andabove            | Comparing newspaper andTV news presentations          | 45 |
| 2.21 | Headline and story                            | Intermediate andabove            | How headline and storycomplement each other           | 46 |
| 2.22 | Newsvendors'posters                       | Elementary andabove              | Newsvendors' posters andnewspapers                    | 46 |
| 2.23 | Three pairingtechniques                   | All levels                           | Thinking about newspaperreading habits                | 48 |
| 2.24 | Story chains                                  | Intermediate andabove            | Making connectionsbetween newspaper stories           | 49 |
| 2.25 | The panel                                     | Intermediate andabove            | How to follow up readingwith discussion               | 50 |
| 2.26 | Matching commentand newspaper             | Intermediate andabove            | Making judgementsabout newspapers                     | 51 |
| 2.27 | The stories I wouldlike to read           | Upper-intermediateand above      | Deciding which stories toread and which to skip       | 52 |
| 2.28 | Reviews                                       | Upper-elementaryand above        | Assessing the type andquality of a newspaper          | 52 |
| 2.29 | Buying newspapers                             | Upper-elementaryand above        | Getting the students to buy anewspaper                | 53 |
| 2.30 | Reading your ownpaper                     | Upper-elementaryand above        | Authentic newspaperreading                            | 54 |

3 Working with texts

|     |                               |                               |  |    |
|-----|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|----|
| 3.1 | Matching story andsummary | Upper-elementaryand above | Separating the essential fromthe inessential | 55 |
|-----|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|----|

|      |                                     |                                 |  |    |
|------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--|----|
| 3.2  | Same name,no relative           | Intermediate andabove       | Ordinary people innewspapers                             | 56 |
| 3.3  | The short, shortstory           | Elementary andabove         | Newspaper 'snippets'   | 57 |
| 3.4  | Separating news andcomment      | Upper-intermediateand above | Raising awareness of bias inpolitical writing            | 58 |
| 3.5  | Why the headline?                   | Intermediate andabove       | How headlines relate tostories                           | 59 |
| 3.6  | Which writer?                       | Upper-intermediateand above | Different story types anddifferent styles                | 61 |
| 3.7  | How original is thelanguage?    | Intermediate andabove       | Cliché and original language                                 | 61 |
| 3.8  | Grading for difficulty              | Intermediate andabove       | Assessing the readability ofnewspaper stories            | 63 |
| 3.9  | Finding stories                     | Intermediate andabove       | Categorizing stories bytype                              | 64 |
| 3.10 | Enough is enough                    | Intermediate andabove       | When a paper is too boringbe worth reading               | 64 |
| 3.11 | Rejects                             | Intermediate andabove       | Discriminating betweennewspaper contents                 | 65 |
| 3.12 | Same theme,different treatments | Intermediate andabove       | Various newspapertreatments of a single topic            | 66 |
| 3.13 | Reconstructingstories           | Intermediate andabove       | How story contents arestructured                         | 67 |
| 3.14 | Identical andfraternal twins    | Intermediate andabove       | Similarity and difference intreatments of the same story | 69 |
| 3.15 | One story,many versions         | Intermediate andabove       | Attributes of particularnewspapers and stories           | 71 |
| 3.16 | Stories andheadlines 1          | Intermediate andabove       | How story specific is aheadline?                         | 72 |
| 3.17 | Stories andheadlines 2          | Intermediate andabove       | How story specific is aheadline?                         | 73 |
| 3.18 | Exaggeration andinaccuracy      | Intermediate andabove       | Accuracy and truth   | 73 |
| 3.19 | Fleshing stories out                | Upper-elementaryand above   | Appropriate contents fornewspaper stories                | 74 |
| 3.20 | Skeleton stories                    | Intermediate andabove       | Familiarization withnewspaper content                    | 75 |
| 3.21 | Completing a story                  | Intermediate andabove       | The sensational and thedown-to-earth                     | 76 |
| 3.22 | Combining stories                   | Intermediate andabove       | Human interest storysubject-matter                       | 78 |

---

4 Working with pictures

|      |                                   |                             |   |    |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|---|----|
| 4.1  | What is a picture?                | Elementary and above        | What is neither text nor picture                        | 80 |
| 4.2  | Picture categories                | Elementary and above        | What is most commonly illustrated                       | 80 |
| 4.3  | Mood pictures                     | Elementary and intermediate | Dominant themes in newspaper pictures                   | 81 |
| 4.4  | Appropriate pictures              | Intermediate and above      | What is included in and omitted from newspaper pictures | 82 |
| 4.5  | Picture visualization             | Elementary and above        | The detailed composition of newspaper pictures          | 82 |
| 4.6  | Finding stories for pictures      | Intermediate and above      | What can be illustrated in a newspaper story            | 83 |
| 4.7  | Finding pictures for stories      | Upper-elementary and above  | Which pictures can illustrate a particular story        | 84 |
| 4.8  | Matching pictures and stories     | Upper-elementary and above  | Matching pictures and text                              | 85 |
| 4.9  | Predicting headlines and stories  | Upper-elementary and above  | How pictures enable understanding of a text             | 86 |
| 4.10 | Captions                          | Upper-elementary and above  | Captions  | 86 |
| 4.11 | Best picture, story, and headline | Intermediate and above      | Qualities of different newspaper presentations          | 88 |
| 4.12 | Picture awards                    | Upper-elementary and above  | Looking for quality and relevance in pictures           | 88 |
| 4.13 | My picture                        | Elementary and above        | Relating to pictures                                    | 89 |
| 4.14 | My picture and my story           | Upper-elementary and above  | Pictures as guides to accompanying stories              | 90 |
| 4.15 | The good, the bad, and the ugly   | All levels                  | Making aesthetic judgements about newspaper pictures    | 91 |

---

5 Project work

|     |                         |                              |  |     |
|-----|-------------------------|------------------------------|--|-----|
| 5.1 | From news to news story | Intermediate and above       | Half-day project: writing and layout           | 93  |
| 5.2 | Being a journalist      | Intermediate and above       | Half-day project: acting as a journalist       | 94  |
| 5.3 | Readers' competitions   | Upper-intermediate and above | Half-day project: designing a competition      | 96  |
| 5.4 | Radio reviews           | Upper-intermediate and above | Half-day project: stories' relative importance | 97  |
| 5.5 | Papers from the past    | Intermediate and above       | Half-day project: reconstructing the past      | 101 |

|      |                     |                              |   |     |
|------|---------------------|------------------------------|---|-----|
| 5.6  | Surveys             | Intermediate and above       | Occasional project: assumptions in newspapers               | 102 |
| 5.7  | Topics in the news  | Upper-intermediate and above | Occasional project: following ongoing themes                | 105 |
| 5.8  | Class newspapers    | Intermediate and above       | Occasional project: making a newspaper                      | 106 |
| 5.9  | Collages            | Intermediate and above       | Occasional or ongoing project: articles on a theme          | 106 |
| 5.10 | Awards              | Intermediate and above       | Occasional or ongoing project: looking for quality          | 108 |
| 5.11 | Will it run?        | Intermediate and above       | Ongoing project: following ongoing stories                  | 108 |
| 5.12 | People in the news  | Intermediate and above       | Occasional or ongoing project: background knowledge         | 109 |
| 5.13 | Winners and losers  | Elementary and above         | Ongoing project: familiarity with people in the news        | 111 |
| 5.14 | The picture gallery | Elementary to intermediate   | Occasional or ongoing project: the most photographed people | 112 |

6 Personal responses

|      |   |                            |   |     |
|------|---|----------------------------|---|-----|
| 6.1  | Your headlines, my stories                  | Upper-elementary and above | Predicting newspaper story content                    | 113 |
| 6.2  | What's happening to people like me?         | Intermediate and above     | Discovering what makes people newsworthy              | 114 |
| 6.3  | Which do you choose?                        | Intermediate and above     | The subject-matter of newspaper stories               | 115 |
| 6.4  | A present from the Press                    | Elementary and above       | How far are newspaper materials acceptable to others? | 116 |
| 6.5  | A collage for a friend                      | Intermediate and above     | Discriminating between newspaper stories              | 116 |
| 6.6  | I chose this story because ...              | Intermediate and above     | How many stories relate to the reader                 | 117 |
| 6.7  | That's nearly me                            | Upper-elementary and above | The motives of people in the newspapers               | 118 |
| 6.8  | Who would I be?                             | Upper-elementary and above | One's own experience and that of the newsworthy       | 118 |
| 6.9  | Someone I'd change places with—well, nearly | Intermediate and above     | Relating to the newsworthy                            | 119 |
| 6.10 | Sharing a chosen story                      | Upper-elementary and above | Presenting and discussing newspaper stories           | 120 |

|      |                          |                              |   |     |
|------|--------------------------|------------------------------|---|-----|
| 6.11 | Classifying stories      | Intermediate and above       | Judging newspaper materials affectively       | 121 |
| 6.12 | Categories of story      | Intermediate and above       | Categorizing newspaper story types            | 122 |
| 6.13 | A story I associate with | Intermediate and above       | Associating with newspaper stories            | 122 |
| 6.14 | A story I relate to      | Upper-elementary and above   | Relating newspaper stories to experience      | 123 |
| 6.15 | Reacting                 | Upper-elementary and above   | Reacting to newspaper articles                | 124 |
| 6.16 | Brainstorming responses  | Intermediate and above       | Responding authentically to newspaper stories | 125 |
| 6.17 | Was it worth reading?    | Upper-elementary and above   | Assessing the quality of newspaper articles   | 126 |
| 6.18 | Yuk                      | Upper-intermediate and above | Tasteless popular journalism                  | 127 |
| 6.19 | Affective language       | Intermediate and above       | How newspapers play on emotions               | 128 |

---

|                 |     |
|-----------------|-----|
| Appendix | 130 |
|-----------------|-----|

---

|                     |     |
|---------------------|-----|
| Bibliography | 132 |
|---------------------|-----|

---