

Table of Contents

Preface 9

THE MIDDLE AGES 11

Introduction 12

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness 12

Open Frontiers and the Emergence of the Polish State 12

The Beginnings of Historical Consciousness 13

Historical Consciousness and Politics 14

Expansion of the State in the Fourteenth Century 15

Man and the Forces of Production 15

The Expansion and Integration of the Population 15

The Birth of Economic Production 16

The Development of Towns 16

The Exploitation of Natural Resources and New Forms of Labor 17

Social Unrest 18

The Popular Insurrection of 1037 18

Rebellions in the Towns 18

The Hussite Movement 19

The Unification of the State and the Integration of the Nation 20

The Unity of the Nation 20

The Tartar Threat 20

The Threat from the Germans and the Teutonic Order 21

The System of Estates 21

Political Advancement of the Gentry 22

View of the World 22

The Christian Life 22

Radical Religious Movements 23

The Ideas of the Scholars of Cracow 24

The Particular Value of Justice 24

The Arts 25

The Culture of the Written Language 25

The Romanesque Style 26

Gothic Art 27

Culture in Society 28

The Spread of Christianity 28

General Education and the University of Cracow 30

Cultural Centers in Society 31

In the Service of God and Country 32

Social and Personal Culture 33

Foreign Culture in Poland and Polish Culture in the World 34

The National Version of Universal Christian Culture 34

Poland in the Eyes of the World 35

Polish Contribution to Science and Philosophy in the Middle Ages 36

Conclusions 36

THE RENAISSANCE 39

Introduction 40

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness 40

The State Frontiers of the Commonwealth of Two Nations 40

Historiography and Historical Interests 41

Poland Presents Itself to the World 43

Man and the Forces of Production 43

The Feudal Consciousness 43

Early Industry 44

Decline of the Cities and the Landowners' Mentality 45

Social Unrest	46
Peasant Protests	46
The Situation in the Cities	46
Conflict Between the Gentry and the Magnates	47
Ideology of Agreement	48
The Commonwealth of Poland	49
State Sovereignty	49
The King as Ruler of the Commonwealth	50
Reform of the Commonwealth	50
The Arian Concept of Equality and Commonwealth	51
Free Elections: A Test of Political Maturity	52
View of the World	52
The New Natural Sciences	52
Social Issues Before the Tribunal of Reason	53
The Secular Concept of Human Life	54
Religion as Consolation and Christ's Challenge	55
The Arts	56
Art and Poetry	56
Art Centers	57
The Social Roots of Art	58
The Perfection of Language Expression	61
The Intellectual and Poetic Acceptance of the World	61
Culture in Society	62
Development of Printing and Mass Culture	62
The Development of Schooling	64
Study Abroad	65
The Social Sources of Intellectual Education	66
The Spread of Elite Culture	67
The Culture of the Royal Court and of the Countryside	68
Foreign Culture in Poland and Polish Culture in the World	69
Foreign Influences	69
Opinions of Polish Culture	70
Cultural Cooperation	71
Polish Contribution to European Culture	72
Conclusions	73

BAROQUE 77

Introduction 78

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness 78

- The Defense of Poland's Borders 78
- The Fate and Responsibilities of Ordinary People 79
- Historiography 80

Man and the Forces of Production 80

- Serf Exploitation 80
- The Prospects for a New Economic Mentality 81

Social Unrest 82

- The Peasant Question 82
- The Conflict Between the Gentry and the Burghers 83
- The Catholic Nation 83

The Commonwealth 84

- Military Forces 84
- The Royal Power and the Freedoms of the Gentry 85
- The Politics of the Magnate Families 86
- On Ineffective Councils 87

View of the World 87

- The Antagonism of Pleasure and Heroism 87
- The Arian View of the World 88
- Classical Traditions in Attitudes Toward Life 89
- Catholic Instructions 90

The Arts 90

- The Importance of Poetry 90
- Architecture: The Art of the Polish Baroque 92
- The Decorations of Life and Death 94

24/20

2169

The Art of the Theater	96
Culture in Society	96
Culture and Education	96
Culture and Life	99
The Burden of Existence	101
Sarmatism	101
Foreign Culture in Poland and Polish Culture in the World	103
Foreign Contacts	103
Polish Contribution to European Culture	104
Conclusions	106

THE ENLIGHTENMENT 109

Introduction 110

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness 110

The First Partition of Poland	110
The Second and the Third Partition of Poland	111
The New Historiography	112
Historical Culture	113

Man and the Forces of Production 114

Revival of the Economy and the New Economic Mentality	114
Medical Care and Protection of the Working Man	115

Social Unrest and National Integration 116

Situation of the Peasants and Attempts at Reform	116
The Struggle of the Cities for Their Rights	117
The Situation of the Gentry	117
A Menacing Revolution but Desired	118

Reform of the State 119

First Reforms and the Mentality of the Bar Confederacy	119
New Political Consciousness: The Constitution of the Third of May	120
Patriotism and Revolution	121
Patriotism of the Entire Nation: The Kosciuszko Insurrection	122

View of the World 122

Freedom and the World	122
The Philosophy of History	123
The Ethics of Justice and Humanity	124
Hedonism and the Philosophy of Love	125
Religion of the Enlightened	126

The Arts 127

Science and Poetry	127
The Sources of Art	128
The Variety of Styles	130

Culture in Society 132

The Social Distribution of Culture	132
Reform of National Education: The First Ministry of Education in Europe	133
Instruments of the Cultural Offensive: The Press, Books, the Salons, and the Theater	135
Sarmatism, Foreign Fashions and National Culture	137
Folk Culture	138

Foreign Culture in Poland and Polish Culture in the World 139

Foreigners in Poland	139
Dialogue with Western Culture	140
Poland in the Eyes of the World	142

Conclusions 144

THE PERIOD OF BONDAGE 147

Introduction 148

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness 148

Beauty of the Native Land	148
The People Draw the Frontiers of Poland	149
Special Role of the Tatra Mountains in Polish Culture	150
Historians Deliver Their Verdict on the Nation	151
Worship of the Past and Faith in the Future	152

Man and the Forces of Production	155
Demographic and Economic Development	155
Industrial Re-education of the Community	157
Social Unrest	158
The Struggle for Independence and the Peasant Question	158
The People and the National Life	159
The Workers' Movement and the Proletarian Revolution	161
The Intelligentsia at the Crossroads	162
Battle for the State	163
Grand Strategies	163
The Vision of a Future Democratic Poland	164
Individual Responsibility and Social Community	165
The Increasing Strength of the Nation	166
View of the World	167
The Philosophy of Historical Maturity	167
Various Concepts of Socio-political Activity	169
Existential Problems	171
The Arts	173
Creative Work for the Sake of the Homeland	173
Art and National Integration	174
The Symbolic Expression of the Invisible World	175
Culture in Society	179
New Models of Life	179
Education of the Heart and Education of Reason	181
The Schools of the Partitioning Powers and Education Through Participation in National Life	182
Learning, Art and the Theater as Educational Activity	184
Culture of the Peasant and the Worker	189
Foreign Culture in Poland and Polish Culture in the World	190
Criticism of European Civilization	190
For Your Freedom and Ours	191
The Political and Scientific Activity of the Emigrés	193
Problems of a "Second" Homeland	194
Conclusions	196

INDEPENDENT POLAND 199

Introduction 200

Poland Between the Wars 200

Place in Europe and Historical Consciousness	200
Social Conflicts and National Goals	202
Ideological Plurality	205
The Art of Dissent and Exploration	208
Elite Culture and Mass Culture	210
Poland and the World	213

Occupation 214

The Defeat of 1939 and the Will to Resist	214
The Defense of National Culture	215
Faits Accomplis and Human Values	216

People's Poland 217

The Year 1945: New Boundaries and New Historical Consciousness	217
Bitter and Critical Post-war Reflections	218
The Road to Socialist Poland	220
Marxism and View of the World	224
Cry of the Heart	228
Realism and the Variety of Currents in the Arts	231
Prospects for Popular and Everyday Culture	235
Poland and the World	238

Index of Names 240

List of Illustrations 249